

Celebrate Catholic Schools Week 2018

January 28 – February 3

#CSW18

January 19, 2018

Dear Friends:

Please join us for National Catholic Schools Week, our annual celebration of what makes education at Sacred Heart Catholic School outstanding. Starting with Sunday Mass on January 28, at 8:00 a.m., we have a whole week of activities planned to show what our students are accomplishing and to celebrate the community we have built to educate tomorrow's citizens and church leaders.

This year's National Catholic Schools Week theme: "CATHOLIC SCHOOLS: LEARN. SERVE. LEAD. SUCCEED." The theme encompasses the core products and values that can be found not only in our school, but in Catholic Schools around the nation. These key elements of Catholic education: faith development, academic excellence and dedication to service are what set Catholic schools apart from other education options. They are why families make sacrifices to provide their children with a Catholic education.

I hope you will visit Sacred Heart Catholic School during National Catholic Schools Week, beginning with our "Big County Breakfast next Sunday January 28th", to enjoy being together not just as a school community, but a parish community, in celebrating Catholic education. Please bring your friends and neighbors, particularly those who may be considering Catholic education for their children.

I am grateful every day for our parish, Father Joseph, teachers, staff, board members, parents and volunteers for making our school a success. National Catholic Schools Week is a good time for all of us to thank them for their dedication and service.

Devotedly yours in Christ,

Rosemary Harris
Principal
