A Note from the Principal

We have had a good week. Basketball practice is getting really serious since we will have our first game in about three weeks. Cross county has already started, but last weekend's meet was cancelled because of rain and flooding.

Remember the mum sale which will start Monday, September 27.

Have a great weekend, and may God bless everyone.

Home and School Mum Sale

Our Home and School Association will be selling mums starting Monday, September 27th. We will offer 30 tricolor and 130 solid color mums. Tricolor options are purple/white/yellow or orange/yellow/red and solid colors available will be white, yellow, purple or red. They will be sold on a first come/first served basis. Tricolor mums will be $30 and solid colors will be $18.

Reminder

On the days we have Home and School meetings, there will be a bake sale put on by the Civics Club. Your child may purchase baked goods during their classroom snack time. Leftover items will be sold at the Home and School meeting that evening.
